INDEX TO VOL. CCVI.

ABDUL, 210.

ADVENTURE, THE LITTLE (being the story of the Russian Relief Force): I.-III., 715—IV.-VI., 856.

ANTRANIK, 441. A Mission to Zanzigeur, ib. et seq.—magnetic attraction of the Armenian leader, 447—attempts to reconcile claims of Mussulmans and Armenians, 448 et seq—journey through Mussulman territory, 451—in Baku, 464—Antranik's views on the mentality of the Turks, 467—his passionate earnestness and fiery eloquence, 468—the damnable work of the Turks, 473—the cry of a martyred nation, 477.

À PROPOS DES BOTTES, 778.

ARMENIANS, THE, 226,

BABYLON, BY THE WATERS OF, 667.

BACK NUMBER, THE, 72.

BALTIC COAST, FROM THE, TO THE DENMARK BORDER: I., The Setting, 368—II., Preparation, 370—III., The Escape, 375.

"BARTIMEUS": 1909-1919, 297.

BATOURI: THE BIBI, 258.

BELGIUM IN 1919, 528. Belgians emerge from a period of bitter repression, ib.—the wanton destruction of Louvain, 529 et seq.—the desolation of Ypres, 533—the work of reparation, 535—Belgian disappointment, ib. et seq.

Beresford, Lord, death of, 574—sailor and statesman, 575.

BEWSHER, PAUL:—
THE LONG TRAIL, 108.
"GREEN BALLS," 246.

BIBI, THE, 258.

Bolsheviks, Mr Bullitt's mission to the, 849—unofficial suggestions of Mr George's private secretary, ib.

Bolshevist cruelties and exactions, Colonel John Ward's tale of, 571.

BOTT, ALAN: EASTERN NIGHTS—AND FLIGHTS, 19, 158, 317, 503, 748.

'Butler, Samuel: A Memoir,' Mr H. Festing Jones's, 709—an uncomfortable man, 710—the creed of a middle-class Radical, 713.

BY THE WATERS OF BABYLON, 667.

CANDLER, EDMUND:—
THE ARMENIANS, 226.
"THE FRIEND OF FA HIEN," 412.
"THE FINDER OF LOST THINGS," 538.

CITIES, A TALE OF TWO, 149. Dublin, 150—Belfast, 152—difference in manners, 154—honours won by Ulster men, 155—Froude's observation on the real curse of Ireland, 156.

Civil List Pensions, the scandal of the, 437—doles and insults, 438.

CLOUSTON, J. STORER; SIMON, 42, 185, 345, 478, 604.

Coal, nationalisation of, 572—unbridled and undisciplined dogmatism of the Trade Unionists, 573.

COMPANY OF TANKS, A, 63, 214, 401, 550, 673.

"CONTACT" (Captain ALAN BOTT, M.C.): EASTERN NIGHTS—AND FLIGHTS (being an interrupted sequel to 'An Airman's Outings'): A Record of Capture in Palestine, Adventure in Turkey, and Escape through Russia, 19, 158, 317, 503, 577, 748.

DENMARK BORDER, FROM THE BALTIC COAST TO THE: I., The Setting, 368—II., Preparation, 370—III., The Escape, 375.

Digby, Kenelm, Mr Bernard Holland's Memoir of, notice of, 289.

DOUGLAS, Major A. J. A.: THE PASSING OF OLD FEZ, 1.

EAST AFRICA, AN AIRMAN'S EXPERIENCES IN: I., The First Aerodrome, 633—II., The Big Push starts, 638—III., Malaria, 642—IV., Mbagui and back to Mombasa, 647—V., Back to the Front, 650 — VI., Nearing the Central Railway, 788 — VII., The Railway and Beyond, 791 — VIII., Morogoro, 797—IX., To the Mgeta Valley, 801 — X., Mixed Sports at Tulo, 804.

EASTERN NIGHTS—AND FLIGHTS (being an interrupted sequel to 'An Airman's Outings'): A Record of Capture in Palestine, Adventure in Turkey, and Escape through Russia. III., The Flight that failed, 19—IV., Nazareth: and the Christian charity of a Jew, 26—V., Damascus: and the second failure, 158—VI., The Berlin-Bagdad Railway: and the aeroplanes that never flew, 173—VII., Cuthbert, Alfonso, and a mud village, 317—VIII., In the shadow of the Black Rock, 324 — IX., Constantinople; and how to become mad, 333 — X., Introducing Theodore the Greek, John Willie the Bosnian, and David Lloyd George's second cousin, 503 — XI., The third and fourth failures, 512—XII., A Greek waitress, a German beer-house, a Turkish policeman, and a Russian ship, 520 — XIII., The face at the window, 577—XIV., A shipload of rogues, 582 — XV., The city of disguises, 592—XVI., Stowaways, Ltd., 748 — XVII., A Russian Interlude, 757—XVIII., Sofia, Salonika, and so to bed, 765 — XIX., A Damascus postscript, and some words on the Knights of Araby; a Crusader in shorts; a very noble ladye; and some happy endings, 769.

Education in the Army, 136—a university with 3,000,000 students, 137—the dangers of the new scheme, 139—smattering and Government interference, 140.

FA HIEN, THE FRIEND OF, 412.

FERGUS, THE ROCK OF, 387. The history of Carrickfergus, ib. et seq.—the rise of Belfast, 392—important consequences in Ulster of the rebellion, 393 — Ulster's present position, 394 et seq.—the latest specific for the ills of Ireland, 399.

FEZ, THE PASSING OF OLD, 1. French policy in Morocco during the war, 2 — passing of the old régime, 3 — varied and romantic history, 4 et seq. —Old and New Fez, 7 et seq.—the climate, 15—feast-days, 16—a Moorish feast, 17.

FINDER OF LOST THINGS, THE, 538.

Fine arts, the proletarian and the, 707.

FOLLOW THE LITTLE PICTURES! by Alan Graham, I.-V., 725.

Franchise Bill, early experience of effect of, upon the country and its government, 853.

FUTURE, THE: RUNNING THE U.S. MAIL, 303.

GATES, GILBERT SINGLETON, 46TH R.F., R.R.F.: THE LITTLE ADVENTURE (being the story of the Russian Relief Force), 715, 856.

German Emperor a royal amateur, 293 —Shall we try him? 294—Remember St Helena! 295.

Germany, the thefts of, 147—a clue in dictating terms, 148.

Government by party, 427—a Coalition, 428—our new despot, 429—the testimony of Swift, 430—the need of an Opposition, 431 — the antics of the Centre Party, ib. et seq.

GRAHAM, ALAN: FOLLOW THE LITTLE PICTURES! 725.

GREAT SEARCH, THE, 690.

"GREEN BALLS": VII., TRAGEDY, 246.

House of Commons, the discredit of the, 284—its causes, 285—the corruption of democracy, 286—the falsehood of rhetoric, 288.

IN IRELAND TO-DAY, 814. New scheme for the government of Ireland, ib.—Sinn Feiners proclaim an Irish Republic, 815—cruel and murderous campaign against the police, 817—the demand for conscription, 818—threat of its application the priesthood's opportunity, 819—the old bad times of forty years ago repeated, 821 —history as taught in the National Schools, 822—Irish soldiers in the Great War, 824—Disraeli on the Irish question, 826.

KINCAID, C. A., C.V.O.: PRATAPRAO, 204.

KLAXON: THE STORY OF OUR SUBMARINES, 118, 271.

Labour Party, Mr Clynes the one man fit to lead a, 570.

League of Nations, dress rehearsal of the, by the Senate of the United States, 141.

LIAISON: ANTRANIK, 441.

LITTLE ADVENTURE, THE (being the story of the Russian Relief Force), I.-III., 715—IV.-VI., 856.

Lloyd George, playful habit of Mr, 143 —his lost opportunity, 844—the best measure of his failure, 845—his mob-oratory, 846 — his wooing of the Bolshevists, 848.

LONG TRAIL, THE, 108.

LOYALIST, SOUTHERN: IN IRELAND TO-DAY, 814.

MACMUNN, Major-General Sir GEORGE, K.C.B., C.S.I., D.S.O.: BY THE WATERS OF BABYLON, 667.
MAN THAT WAS A MULTITUDE, THE, 811.
MONTAGUE, C. E.: À PROPOS DES BOTTES, 778.
MUSINGS WITHOUT METHOD: July, 136—August, 284—September, 427—October, 567—November, 700—December, 844.

1909–1919, by "Bartimeus," 297.
NOYES, ALFRED: THE MAN THAT WAS A MULTITUDE, 811.
NUMBER, THE BACK, 72.

OLD FEZ, THE PASSING OF, 1.

PARADISE IN WAR-TIME: I., The Lotos-Eaters, 97—II., Over the Top, 99—III., Nightingale Valley, 104.
Pauperising the State, 854—the injustice of the new policy, 855—working classes must recover their ancient independence, ib.
Peace, delay in the making of, 145—our debt to Belgium, ib.
Prataprao, 204.

Railway strike, the, 700—an Anarchist conspiracy, 701—the folly of Mr Thomas, 703—who is behind him? 704—the tyranny of trade unions, 705—the depression of the Bolshevists, 706.
'Revolution, the French,' by Mrs Arthur Webster, notice of, 434—the Illuminati, ib.—the German always a Spartacist, 435—our two warnings, 436—the Jewish domination, ib.
ROCK OF FERGUS, THE, 387.
Russia, England's duty in, 144—Mr Churchill's apology, ib.—a time-limit to our honour in, 851—Captain Cromie still unavenged, ib.

SEARCH, THE GREAT, 690. Removing German consuls from the United States, ib.—the searching place for the Fredrik VIII. at Halifax, 691—the Great Search, 692 et seq.—"The Scandinavian Trunk," 697—trunk arrives at the Foreign Office, 699.
SEPOYS, TWO: I., PRATAPRAO, 204—II., ABDUL, 210.
SIMON: X., The Letter, 42—XI., News, 46—XII., Cicely, 51—XIII., The Deductive Process, 54—XIV., The Question of Motive, 58—XV., Two Women, 185—XVI., Rumour, 187—XVII., A Suggestion, 191—XVIII., £1200, 195—XIX., The Empty Compartment, 197—XX., The Sporting Visitor, 200—XXI., Mr Carrington's Walk, 345—XXII., Mr Carrington and the Fiscal, 348—XXIII., Simon's Views, 352—XXIV., Mr Bisset's Assistant, 356—XXV., A Telegram, 361—XXVI., At Stanesland, 364—XXVII., Flight, 478—XXVIII., The Return, 481—XXIX., Brother and Sister, 485—XXX., A Marked Man, 487—XXXI., The Letter again, 493—XXXII., The Sympathetic Stranger, 496—XXXIII., The House of Mysteries, 499—XXXIV., A Confidential Conversation, 604—XXXV., In the Garden, 609—XXXVI., The Walking-Stick, 612—XXXVII., Bisset's Advice, 616—XXXVIII., Trapped, 619—XXXIX., The Yarn, 623—XL., The Last Chapter, 628.
SOMERVILLE, Rear-Admiral BOYLE, C.M.G., R.N.: THE GREAT SEARCH, 690.
STRAHAN, J. A.:—
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, 149.
THE ROCK OF FERGUS, 387.
SUBMARINES: THE STORY OF OUR: VI., Experience of "A E 2" in the Sea of Marmora, 118—meets her end, 119—loss of "E 13" entering the Baltic, ib.—extraordinary escape of Petty Officer Brown from "E 41," 120 et seq.—"E 23" attacks the German High Sea Fleet, 122—"K" class submarines, 123—incidents and stories, 124 et seq. VII., A minelaying submarine's trip, 271—Commander Layton (E 13) escapes from Denmark, 272—rival designs and construction, 273—the true strategic use of patrol submarines, 275—need of humane and decent laws to control submarine warfare, 279—the crews of our boats, 281.

TALE OF TWO CITIES, A, 149.
TANKS, A COMPANY OF: V., The Second Battle of Bullecourt (May 3, 1917), 63—VI., Rest and Training (May and June 1917), 214—VII., The Third Battle of Ypres—Preparations (July 1917), 401—VIII., The Third Battle of Ypres—St Julien (August 1917), 550—IX., The Third Battle of Ypres—The Poelcapelle Road (September and October 1917), 559—X., The Battle of Cambrai—Flesquieres (November 4th to 20th, 1917), 673—XI., The Battle of Cambrai—Bourlon Wood (November 21st to 23rd, 1917), 683—XII., The Battle of Cambrai—Gouzeaucourt (November 24th to December 1st, 1917), 828—XIII.,

Havrincourt to Harrow (December 1st, 1917, to January 31st, 1918), 836.
"Timeo Danaos . . .," 92.
Trade Union Congress at Glasgow, 567—Labour in the guise of a spoilt beauty, ib.—Mr Stuart-Bunning's denunciation of direct action, 568.
Trail, The Long, 108.

Walmsley, Leo: An Airman's Experiences in East Africa, 633, 788.
War-Time, Paradise in; I., The Lotos-Eaters, 97—II., Over the Top, 99—III., Nightingale Valley, 104.
Watson, Major W. H. L., D.S.O., D.C.M.: A Company of Tanks, 63, 214, 401, 550, 673, 828.
Whibley, Charles: Belgium in 1919, 528.
Wildridge, Oswald: The Back Number, 72.
Working class, the pauperising of the, 574.
Woman, A—to Women, 653. "Temperance (Scotland) Act, 1913, The," ib.—demand for a poll, 654—consideration of the three resolutions electors will vote on, ib. et seq.—what Prohibition means, 657—America's experience, ib. et seq.—France's wonderful example, 659—Mr Lloyd George's strong words, 660—danger of prohibitionist becoming an ally of the trade, ib.—what the Liquor Control Board proved, 661—the strength of the liquor trade, 662—additional clause giving the option of State Purchase advocated, 663 et seq.

Printed by William Blackwood and Sons.